The Land We Love.

DEDICATED TO GENERAL D. H. HILL.

The land we love,—a queen of lands,
No prouder one the world has known,
Though now uncrowned upon her throne
She sits with fetters on her hands.

True royalty is sterling worth,
And noble deeds the right divine;
Her empire sways from clime to clime
Wherever manly thought has birth!

And through all coming ages sure
Her honor, founded on the rock
Of truth, shall grandly bear the shock
Of malice, and undimmed endure.

Man did not conquer her, but God,
For some wise purpose of his own,
Withdrew his arm; she, left alone,
Sank down resistless 'neath his rod.

God chastens most whom he loves best,
And scourges whom he will receive;
The land we love may cease to grieve
And on his gracious promise rest!

Nestling her children to her side,
She fought to make those children free;
And when, by Heaven's supreme decree,
Her last fond hope of freedom died,

She nobly yielded to its might,
Gasping amid her fiercest pain:
"God's way!—and he will make it plain,—
His evening-time will bring us light!"

Four years to battle for the right,
And warfare with the world sustain;
Yet on her 'scutcheon not one stain,—
No blot upon her banner white!

Land that we love,—O Southern land!
(Far dearer to thy children now,
With desolation on thy brow,
Than when at thy supreme command

Thy hosts embattled, and the stream
Of triumph rolled its purple tide
Throughout thy golden borders wide,
And bathed thee with a rainbow gleam,)

Though howling waves around thee toss,
Rest calm in thine exalted strength.
Sublime though ruined, till at length,
The crown of Heaven replace thy cross!

FANNY DOWNING.

CHARLOTTE, June 7, 1866.

The Needle Gun.

This new weapon, which has come into notice during the recent campaigns on the continent, exclusively in the hands of the Prussians, has created so much remark, that we give a description of it in full, from the Cincinnati Commercial.

It is said that one battalion armed with this gun, is equal in strength to three battalions, of equal numbers, armed with the ordinary musket or rifle.

The Prussians are represented to have done fearful execution with it, and that their recent successes are in no small degree attributable to its superiority over the arms in the hands of the Austrians.

This account of it, however, does not yield the excellence claimed for it.

The needle gun is a breech loading rifle of a very simple construction. It has its name from the fact that the powder is ignited not by a hammer striking a cap, but by a needle perforating the cartridge and exploding the fulminating material by friction. At the breech of the gun there is a handle in the form of a knob.—By moving this handle to one side, which is done by a very simple and rapid motion, the breech is opened; the cartridge is then slipped into the aperture, and the handle is returned to its original position, closing the breech. By the same motion the needle is pressed back so as to be detained by a spiral spring. When the trigger is pulled, the needle darts forward into the breech through a small hole at the lower end of the barrel, and perforates and ignites the fulminating material in the cartridge, thus exploding the powder. The manual operations by which all this is accomplished are exceedingly simple and can be performed with great rapidity, so that the needle gun can easily be loaded and discharged three or four times while a common muzzle-loading rifle is fired once.—The needle gun is very light and handy, and can be relied upon at long range and carries the bullet with great accuracy.

The load is contained in a single cartridge consisting of a ball resembling the Minnie ball, the priming and a charge of powder, so arranged that when the cartridge is inserted in its proper place in the gun, there is left behind it an air chamber through which, when the trigger is drawn, the needle darts through the powder into the priming.

By this arrangement, the ignition of the powder takes place from in front instead of from behind, and in the air-chamber, instead of in a solid cartridge as in every other gun. The chemical composition of the priming, which, in connection with the air chamber, causes a more complete combustion of all the powder employed than is obtained by any other gun, is the secret which is supposed to be known only to the Prussian Government. The effect of igniting the powder in the air chamber is, that the gun combines the explosive power of the gunpowder with the expansive power of the intensely heated air. While in the ordinary rifle the explosive forge of the powder ends with the explosion, in this the explosion is prolonged and intensified by the air, so that the pressure on the ball increases by an ever cumulating explosion, until it reaches the muzzle of the gun. It is claimed that while the ordinary rifle, by making the muzzle somewhat smaller than the breech, retards the force of the ball for the sake of accuracy, the needle gun, by the expansive and cumulative force of its explosion, increases in power by reason of the formation of the barrel.

The needle gun was first introduced in the Prussian army nearly twenty years ago. If we remember correctly, some battalions of the guards had it already in 1848, in the first Schleswig-Holstein war. In 1849, when the King of Prussia sent his troops into the various parts of Germany to suppress insurrectionary movements, it was in the hands of several regiments of the line. In the second Schleswig-Holstein war, in 1864, it was tested on a larger scale, and now in the great battles in Bohemia it has gone through its final and conclusive ordeal.

The needle gun is probably not the best breech-loading firearm in existence. One of its disadvantages consists in the needle sometimes becoming bent or otherwise injured; but the Prussian soldier carries several reserve needles in his pouch, and is carefully drilled in all the manipulations necessary for taking out the old needle and replacing it with a new one, an operation easily accomplished, as the whole machinery of the lock is of a very simple construction.

The society in which this College is located is known to be equal to any in the South.

FOR THE CONSTITUTION OF THE UNITED STATES, AS IT IS, AND THE UNION AS IT WAS.
NO FURTHER AMENDMENTS.

FOR GOVERNOR,
JONATHAN WORTH,
OF RANDOLPH.

Philadelphia Convention.

The delegates from the several Districts in this State, for the purpose of appointing delegates for the State at large to the Philadelphia Convention, will meet in this City, on Friday next, at the Court House, at 12 o'clock, M. The N. C. Railroad, and, we believe, all the rest, pass the delegates over the Roads for half price.

The delegates to the District Convention of this District will meet on the same day, at 11 o'clock, in the Court House, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the resignation of Judge Gilliam.

Hon. A. H. Jones.

A somewhat critical reader of the Sentinel, whose views on national politics differ from ours, in his correspondence with several friends in this city, frequently takes us to task for what he calls "false charges" or "mis-statements" in several particulars. Such intimations we deem impertinent and disingenuous, and they betray an ignorance of journalism not looked for from that quarter. Our habit is never to make a statement or charge affecting any one, without a good reason or unsupported by proper testimony. What we state as truth, we believe to be true, and we have evidence to sustain it, either from a cotemporary or some other source. If we do not believe it, we express the doubt at the time, and always correct what we find to be erroneous.

This writer expresses his surprise at the many "false" charges we made, the other day, against Mr. A. H. Jones. We know nothing of Mr. Jones' history, except what we have learned from his special friend and defender, the Standard. Our remarks in reference to Mr. Jones were based entirely upon the following paragraph from the Standard of August 2d:

"There is no doubt about the loyalty of Mr. Jones, the representative elect from the mountain district; and there is as little doubt as to the loyalty of Mr. Pool, one of our Senators elect. Mr. Jones was conscripted and sent to Richmond. He deserted the camp, we believe, on account of the inhuman treatment he received, and because he did not want to fight against the United States. After much suffering and many narrow escapes, he reached his home in the mountains. In August, 1864, while in camp, we believe, he was a candidate for the House of Commons for the Counties of Henderson and Transylvania. We supported him in the columns of this paper, he being a candidate on what was called the "Holden" or "peace ticket" against Vance. He did not seek the place. He was simply run by his friends in his absence. If he had been at home at the time he would have been elected. His object was to come to Raleigh, to take steps to call a State Convention to arrest the war, and to secure peace on the basis of a restoration of the Union."

The writer alluded to denies that Mr. Jones was ever conscripted or was ever in the Confederate service, or that he deserted. He will see, at once, that his quarrel, then, should be with the Standard, and not with the Sentinel.—Our article was based entirely upon the above, and we supposed that Mr. Holden might be credited when speaking of his special friends and supporters, such as Mr. Jones has shown himself to be. We certainly supposed that Mr. Holden would give the most favorable account of Mr. Jones, possible. He says that Mr. Jones was both a conscript and a deserter.

We did not call in question the statement that Mr. Jones had always been a consistent Union man. This is possible, yet his temper and principles differ widely from those of the others in this State, who have been known throughout as having been consistent Union men. Uniformly, they are liberal towards their fellow-citizens who differ with them. They are neither proscriptive nor Radical. Mr. Jones, so far as we have learned, is both. His colleague, Hon. Lewis Hanes, is at least his equal, we doubt not his superior, in exhibiting a consistent Unionism from the beginning till the end of the war, and since. He is a correct type of the true Union men—men all the time Union,—in the State, and he exhibits no such vindictive, proscriptive or Radical spirit as many "so-called" Union men exhibit.

But the point we made was, that, although he might have been an "unmistakable Union man," yet, if Mr. Holden had given a true version of his course, Mr. Jones could not, in our judgment, take the "test oath." A man taking that oath swears, "that I have neither sought, nor accepted, nor attempted to exercise, the functions of any office whatever, under any authority or pretended authority, in hostility to the United States." Now Mr. Holden says that Mr. Jones did not seek to represent the Counties of Henderson and Transylvania in 1864, but that "he was a candidate;"—moreover, "he being a candidate, on what was called the Holden or peace ticket," "did not seek the place, was run by his friends in his absence, but would have been elected if he had been at home."—Moreover, he desired, or rather he had an object in wishing, to come to Raleigh. Now if what Mr. Holden says of him be true, is it not plain, that he could not swear, "I have neither sought, nor accepted, nor attempted to exercise the functions of any office," &c. How would the judges decide a matter of that sort, with the facts as presented by the Standard.

We have no prejudice against a living man, because he was a true, consistent Union man, nor against any one who can honestly take that oath. But so many men have already taken it, who are believed, by those who are intimately cognizant of their course, to have foresworn themselves, that we are anxious to prevent a recurrence of it. If Mr Jones can take that oath conscientiously and legitimately, we have no objection to it or to him, simply on account of it.

The Administration and the "Loyal" Men of the South.

The Washington Republican addresses some earnest words to that class at the South who claim to be "Union men" in a peculiar sense.—These, with much unanimity, are throwing themselves into the arms of the Radicals, and against the President. They have refused to meet the President's friends in the Convention which the latter have invited in Philadelphia on the 14th of August, and under the lead of Stokes, Underwood, and others of that sort, have called a rival and hostile convention to meet in the same city, three weeks later. Speaking of this refusal to support the President and co-operation with his enemies, the Republican—the organ of the administration—says:

"It is this remarkable fact, that some of the very men who have been so greatly wronged by Congress exhibit this factious spirit just at the moment the friends of the Administration are opening their prison doors, which prompted these observations. It will have been not only an unwelcome but a painful task on the part of the friends of the Administration to labor to secure the rights of a people who have no disposition to improve the opportunities which their efforts are designed to afford. Men are usually grateful for such favors; it is the nature of dogs to lick the hand that smites them. If the Senators and Representatives elect who have joined Judge Underwood in the counter-call are not in favor of their own admission into Congress, as this act of theirs seems to imply, their constituents ought to have the opportunity of sending here worthier men.

It rests with you now to determine for yourselves what you will do in the premises. If you desire to uphold the Administration, the Constitution and the laws, send delegates to the August Convention. If, upon the other hand, you desire to oppose the Administration, the Constitution and the laws, and to be denied a voice in the next Presidential election, send delegates to the September Convention. There is no law to prevent you from biting off your own noses."

"If such things are permitted to continue, the day is not distant when the South will be to the Union what Poland is to Russia. Every loyal voice will be hushed, (though many will cherish a love of the Union in their hearts,) and no voice will be heard save that of defiance for the government and contempt for the "Yankee."—Standard.

Our neighbor's reading is sadly at fault. It is news that in Poland, which is kept under the iron heel of arbitrary power by Russia, "no voice can be heard save that of defiance for the government." Such a voice would be very soon stilled by the knout, or only allowed to vent its utterances in the frozen wilds of Siberia.

Under Radical sway, which the Standard is doing everything in its power to fasten upon us, the South would indeed "be to the Union what Poland is to Russia." Denied representation, while oppressed with the most exhausting taxation,—its representative men distranchised and degraded,—its leaders in the late revolution hung or banished,—the press gagged and public opinion stifled,—military authority setting at defiance the civil tribunals, the parallel would indeed be complete!

NO MAN, who was consistent and honest in his devotion to the Union during the war, is thought the less of on that account. It is only those who were chiefly instrumental in bringing on the war, who educated the people to believe that the States had a right to secede, but who deserted and betrayed them when they became involved in trouble, and who now profess to be Union men par excellence, who are repudiated and contemned. Without a single exception, that we know of, these men have thrown themselves into the embrace of Stevens and Sumner. They are seeking to proscribe, degrade and ruin those whom they lured and then deserted. It is not love for the Union, but hatred of men in their own midst, that controls their present course.

GOV. HOLDEN denies that he signed the ordinance of secession with "a new gold pen." He says (pen-itentially) that he signed it with an "old gold pen,"—"the best we (he) ever put to paper;" in other words a remarkably cherished and favorite pen,—a "duck of a pen," which could best be used for "gloriously" celebrative purposes. We make the correction cheerfully. We will not, willingly, do any man injustice,—especially in a matter of such grave moment!

THE "Ex-P. G." says that he signed the ordinance of secession with a heavy heart. We presume that it was equally heavy, on the 22nd., when he thus glorified over its passage:

"Thus was the anniversary of the Mecklenburg declaration of Independence GLORIOUSLY celebrated by the delegates of the people in Convention assembled. North Carolina has been slow to act, but she has acted finally. We think she has acted WISELY from first to last. Henceforth her destinies are with the States of the South, and she will make good her act of the 20th. of May, 1861, with her LAST DOLLAR AND HER LAST MAN, if such a sacrifice should be required at her hands."

THE RADICALS are playing over their old game of "bleeding Kansas." The South is to have no peace; every incentive is to be used to create and intensify the antagonism of races South, and every outbreak will be so much clear gain to Radicalism.

We have fallen upon unhappy times, when selfish partisans find the best way to attain power is to unchain the furies. What will liberty, what will property, what will life, ultimately be worth in this country, if this horrible diabolism is sanctioned by the endorsement of the people?

EXTRACT from a letter to the Editors, dated

SOUTHPORT, INDIANA, Aug. 4th., 1866.

"I think I am safe in saying to you that there is a majority in Indiana in favor of a wise and liberal policy toward the unfortunate people of the South. As the October election approaches, the contest is becoming more bitter, and the Radicals are forced to strip the mask from their diabolical designs. Their object is to continue military rule in the South till its manhood is crushed. The mutterings of such men as Holden are hailed by every Radical as an indication that they have but to continue their bloody reign, to get cowardly renegades enough in the South to insure their final triumph. All good men here hope that you will continue to preserve your self respect by standing up for just principles and the equal rights of the States."

"Now, fellow-citizens, it is sometimes said that this call is addressed to those who are rebels against the Government. Not at all.—You may say it may embrace those who Are been rebels against the Union. That, perhaps, is true; but it don't embrace a single man who is a rebel now."

The foregoing is an extract from a recent speech by Senator Doolittle, in Chicago, in vindication of the call for the National Convention. It embodies the right spirit,—the one which we accept as having prompted the invitation to the South to be represented in that body. Whatever may have been a man's antecedents, if he is now true to the Constitution, as it is, and in favor of reconciliation, on the basis of President Johnson's policy, he will be admitted to a seat and be respectfully heard.

"The Richmond Whig publishes a long list of pardons granted by the President to Virginians. It is a singular fact that disloyalty in Virginia increases in proportion to the pardons."—Standard.

If "pardoning" begets "disloyalty," what a load of sin rests upon the shoulders of our "Ex-P. G." He "pardoned" five hundred "rebels," by a stroke of the pen, in several months' anticipation of the Executive clemency.

THE CONSTITUTION of Missouri, concocted by the radical destructives in that State, disqualifies white men from preaching the gospel of Christ without a license, but qualifies negroes to intermarry with whites, without any restriction other than is applicable to marriages between whites. We gather from this some idea of the sort of government which in black republican estimation is "what it ought to be."

THE "EX-P. G." is very mad, because we have appealed to history and given the official record in the matter of the secession ordinance.—He even threatens us with the contempt of Forney. We cave in under so terrible a prospect. There are some things we can't stand, and the contempt of the "D. D." is one of them.

Messrs. A. M. Keiley and E. D. Branch have purchased the interest of Mr. G. A. Sykes in the proprietorship of the Petersburg Index.—Mr. Keiley will continue as editor.

There is no longer any doubt of the ultimate triumph of Col. Wm. Lamb in establishing steam communication between Norfolk and Europe. The loss of the Ephesus delays, but does not defeat, the project.

[Washington Correspondence of the N. Y. Express.]

The Philadelphia Convention.

We are all looking with great interest to the Philadelphia Convention on the 14th, the proceedings of which will have such important results. The Radicals, in their desperation and alarm, will probably attempt to break it up, even if they have to try it by mob violence. I have no fears of the result, even if the attempt is made, and the mere attempt, successful or otherwise, would be the very worst job they could undertake. It would cost them tens or hundreds of thousands of votes in the Fall elections.

You may rest assured that the guillotine axe is being sharpened here to razor keenness and will fall rapidly and heavily.

I do not believe there will be any more Cabinet changes. I have no confidence in the reports of either Mr. Stanton's resignation or dismissal. I think he is a fixture. There is an active movement and rather a formidable one against Mr. McCulloch.

Radical Responsibility for Negro Rioting.

The New York Herald says:

"There can be no mistake as to the spirit which instigated the Radicals to cause these riots and still less as to the objects which they seek to accomplish by their endeavors to poison the Northern mind. He who lends himself to their schemes, directly or indirectly, encourages a new civil war. If these riots are incited at the South they will spread, like an epidemic, to the North, and the Radicals will be the worst sufferers. Should the President be impeached by the present Congress, and removed from his office upon partisan grounds, to be succeeded by Chas. Sumner or Ben Wade, as Vice President pro tem., until a popular election be held, the country will not quietly submit to such an outrage It seems that there has not been enough blood-letting to satisfy our Radical Chandlers; but if another intestine conflict shall come, the Radicals themselves—who escaped scot-free during the recent war, and made money out of the miseries they had caused—will certainly be the first victims."

We hold that the best, the safest and the surest way to defeat the Radical Conspirators and re-unite the country is to carry the coming Congressional elections for the conservatives. To that every energy should be devoted and everything else should be made subsidiary.—The commercial interests of the country can well afford to contribute all the funds required, since they will surely be destroyed if the radical plans succeed. The masses of the people will overlook all minor issues and direct their attention to the discomfiture of the Radicals."

THE NEW ORLEANS POLICE.—The behavior of the police yesterday was admirable. New Orleans has reason to be proud of possessing so efficient and courageous a body of men. When they were fired upon in all directions by the crowd in the street, and the people inside of the Mechanics' Institute, they did not falter, but marched straight on in the execution of their duty. Mayor Monroe deserves credit for selecting and organizing such a police force.—[New Orleans Picayune, Saturday, 4th.

We are glad to see in town William Shepard Bryan, Esq., of Baltimore, on a visit to his relatives and friends. Mr. Bryan has been quite indisposed since his arrival, but has nearly recovered his strength. Mr. Bryan, by his naturally good mind, his studious habits, and close attention to business, has taken position among the leading members of the Baltimore bar, and is destined, if he lives, to add to his present reputation.—Standard.

An Editor out west says: "A female correspondent sends us an interesting piece of poetry and requests us to publish it. The moon is called bright; the stars are flattered with the original appellation of "meek-eyed;" the trees come in for a full share of eulogy; and the falling spring is pronounced silver plated, or something to that effect. Besides, the poem is equally instructive on other subjects. If Mary will send us an affidavit that she has washed her dishes, mended her hose and swept her house the week after she was "struck with poetic fire," we will give in, and startle the world from its lethargy. For the present we must say "darn your stockings, and darn your poetry, too."

General News.

Among the emigrants who passed St. Paul, Minnesota, recently, representing almost every European nationality, were a party of Finns, or Laplanders, from the extreme North of Europe. They attracted a good deal of attention from their peculiar style of dress. They were, perhaps, the first emigrants that ever came from that country to this.

The Radicals are curious about the Philadelphia Wigwam. This is natural, as there they will be scalped.

The blacks of New Orleans are being generally disarmed, it is said. Why were they allowed to arm themselves in the first instance?

On the leg and thighs of Mr. Jones, who was killed by lightning the other day, in Piqua, and on the back of his little son, was electrotyped a perfect image of the tree underneath which they were standing at the time of the sad accident.

When General Sherman was leaving Cleveland he responded, in answer to the inevitable demand for a speech, "I see that the Atlantic Cable has been successfully laid—that's a great thing. I also see that Congress has adjourned—that's a good thing, and if the hot weather only keeps off, that, too, will be a good thing."

Queen Emma, of Hawaii, who has been much lionized in London and Paris, is expected in New York. She is slightly tinged, but hardly "colored" enough to create a very great sensation with Sumner and Banks, who look specially after our "foreign relations."

A Dublin clergyman finds a prediction of the Atlantic Telegraph in "The Prayer of Habakkuk."

NOT RATIFIED.—It has transpired, officially, that the Tennessee Legislature made no ratification of the Constitutional amendment. The State Department has received no official notification of the fact, and reliable intelligence from Nashville adds that the matter will now go over to the next session of the Legislature.

TEXAS RESTORED.—A dispatch from Galveston, 3d, says:

The President telegraphs to Judge Bell, Secretary of State, that the Legislature of Texas will meet without hindrance on the 6th. The Governor will be inaugurated on the 9th, and then the officers of the Provisional Government will turn over their respective badges to the officers elect.

The man in Mobile, who, for a wager, undertook to walk an indefinite number of hours, burst a blood vessel, died, and was buried on Wednesday. His wife would not allow him to be interred until the corpse began to decompose, believing him still alive. She is now insane, and will probably remain so for life.

Horace Greely, a Vermont paper says, while in the cars last Monday, said that "Lincoln was always wrong, but you could drive him right; Johnson is always wrong, and you can't drive him right."

A ragged old vagrant was recently arrested in St. Joseph. Half a bushel of filthy old rags were taken from about his waist, and wrapped in the rags was concealed $1,224 50 in coin, and $329 in currency. He declared that some of the coin had been in his possession for forty years.

The National Debt.

It is a remarkable fact that the national debt was reduced during the year ending the 1st instant more than one hundred and twenty-four millions of dollars. If this is done while about half the area of the country occupied by a third of the population is impoverished by the war, the exhibit would have been a great deal better had the Union been really restored after the war by according to the States their equal rights under the Constitution.

Yet while this statement of actual reduction appears in the Secretary of the Treasury's report, there is still the sum of $137,817,332 lying in the treasury. This it would seem ought likewise to be applied to the diminution of the public debt, since it would very materially reduce the interest on that debt—say that $100,000,000 were paid, that would reduce the interest per annum by the amount of $5,000,000.

The exhibit of the state of the finances is quite encouraging, and justifies the hope of a return at some reasonable time to a more solid condition of things—to specie payments and par valuations. Had the Radicals been more practical and less selfish, more patriotic and less partisan, they would have adopted wiser measures, admitted the southern States to equality, and the Treasury exhibits, as encouraging as they are, would have been much better. Some Radicals in New York are endeavoring to get Mr. McCULLOCH removed. The President will hardly listen to their appeals. Mr. McCULLOCH is a good, able, sincere, and honest officer, and the President knows it.—Rich. Dispatch

The Hegira.

The New York Tribune has news that, "within three days, since the riot, thousands of Unionists have left New Orleans." What the Tribune calls "Unionists" are Radical incendiaries, who came South to incite the negroes to violence, and to enable STEVENS, SUMNER and Company to organize a Radical party to break down the President's Southern policy. The sooner all such men leave the South the better it will be for the negroes, as well as for the true, honest Union men, who are as safe in the South as they are in the North. They will be a happy riddance; but we pity the Northern communities in which they shall seek refuge. They are bad citizens. If the South were to return to the North all the depraved political adventurers, agitators and incindiaries thrown upon it since the cessation of the war, the scene of rioting would soon be changed from Memphis and New Orleans to the cities of the North. These men cannot live in peace. They will create disturbances wherever they go.—Whig.

MAJOR-GENERAL SLOCUM ON RADICALISM.—The distinguished Major-General SLOCUM, who is spoken of as Secretary of War after Mr. STANTON, wrote a letter in reply to an invitation to attend the Soldiers' Convention in Pennsylvania, from which we make the following extract:

"There exists among us a political party, which, for the purpose of retaining power, has prevented the complete restoration of the Union, which we understood to be the sole object of the war; a party which would hold a portion of the States in subjugation, teaching the rising generation in both sections lessons of jealousy and hatred, instead of seeking to make them forget the bitter past, and become, as they must become—if our Union is ever to be of value—one people in interest and feeling.

"Let those who fought for a restoration of the Union now come forward and vote for it, and our victory is assured.

"Very respectfully, &c.,
"H. W. SLOCUM."

PROSPECTUS.

This company owns by warranty title nearly fourteen thousand acres of mineral lands, situated in the counties of Chatham, Moore, Rockingham and Stokes, on the waters of Deep and Dan Rivers, in North Carolinia, which abound in plentiful deposits of coal, copper, iron, salt, and, there is every reason to believe from general and surface indications, petroleum or coal oil.

The services of two practical and efficient men, experienced in boring for oil, and stimulated by a long course of success in Venango county, Pennsylvania, were secured by the company several months since and they are now on the lands, with the requisite force, tools, steam engine and machinery, boring a well with very flattering prospects of success. The organization of this company effected some time since has now been perfected in legal form, by act of incorporation, with a capital of $500,000, divided into 100,000 shares of $5 each.

By reference to the valuable and laborious reports of Prof. Emmons, State Geologist, and Commodore Wilkes, U. S. Navy, every one interested will be enabled to judge of the value of the large area of territory secured by the North Carolina Petroleum and Mining Co.

It is well known that a superior article of bituminous coal is now being mined in the Deep river coal region, where a portion of the lands are situated, and this company owns property known to be equal if not superior to any on which shafts have been sunk. Copper, iron and salt also abound, and the attention of capitalists has already been directed to this section on account of its value for the above minerals.

Below are given a few extracts from the journals showing that there is no good reason why there should not be as large quantities of oil in the "Old North State" as in other States.

Oil has been struck in Overton county, Tennessee, on the north line of that State, about midway from its eastern border, eighteen miles from the Cumberland mountains.—Christian (Richmond) Observer.

OIL WELLS IN WEST VIRGINIA.—The Parkersburg Times gives an astonishing statement of the yield of wells in the region thereabout, consisting of Wood, Wirt, Ritchie and other counties, viz: Burning Springs, 2,500 barrels per day; White Oak, 1,500; Lick Run, 300; Horse Neck, 150; and of the several wells on Hughes river, 6,000 barrels per day. The quality is said to be remarkably fine. The Times considers the oil of West Virginia the best yet discovered.

THE OIL EXCITEMENT IN ILLINOIS.—The oil excitement in Clark county is still high. Some eight or ten derricks are up and at work. The deepest well is only 325 feet, with a fair yield of oil. Some of the other wells have struck oil and gas at from 70 to 100 feet.—Much time and money will be spent this summer in the thorough development of the oil resources of Clark county. Men of capital and experience seem confident that oil will be found in large quantities, and are willing to test their faith by a free expenditure in developing the lands. The first company who bored on the land of Hon. T. R. Young, are now engaged in trying to raise the auger which was lost last fall.—The Eastern Illinois Company will begin work in a few days twelve miles southwest of the first well. The prospect in that locality is good.—Chicago Tribune.

It is known that after a few months boring in the vicinity of Lynchburg, a large vein of oil was struck and a productive well is now in successful operation. This is on the same line with, and about 80 miles from, the company's first well on Dan River, where the indications both general and particular are similar.

In order to have sufficient means to develop this valuable property in such a manner as to insure success, the Directors have authorized 10,000 shares of the capital stock to be sold to raise a working capital, and subscriptions for that number or any part thereof will be received.

An uncommonly favorable opportunity for investment is thus afforded, as those who choose to buy stock under this offer will have the advantage of an equal footing with the original corporators in an enterprise which, after the example of the immense profits realized in those of a similar character in other States, though in many respects on less favorable conditions than this, (compare the extent, cheapness and fee simple title of the basis of operations here offered) gives reasonable assurance of the most lucrative results. In many instances in sections of less favorable oil localities, shares have advanced in a few days from $2 or $5 to $20 and even $50, and poor men who made small investments realized fortunes.

Further information may be had at the office of the company, one door north of the Court House, Greensboro, N. C., where books of subscription are now open.

By order of the Directors.

BATTLE'S DIGEST.

The Digest of all the reported law cases in North Carolina, from the earliest period to the present year, is now nearly ready for the binder. It will consist of about 1200 pages, including the table of cases, &c.—The book has been so arranged that it can be bound in one volume, or in two, according to the preference of the purchaser.

The cost of publication has been greater than was expected, in consequence of the book being larger, and it is ascertained that the author cannot afford to charge less than $15 for the volume or volumes of the Law, and $10 for the Equity volume to be paid on or before the delivery of the volumes respectively. The work, though containing much more matter, will cost but little more in currency, than was formerly charged in gold or its equivalent for the aggregate of Iredell's and Jones's Digest.

When a purchaser wants an interleaved copy, he will so state in his order for the work. There will be an additional price of one dollar for such copy.

We have consented to act as agents for Judge Battle in the sale of the Digest, and now solicit immediate orders, accompanied with directions as to how the book shall be bound, &c.

The printing of the Equity volume will be commenced without delay.

THE NATIONAL UNION BUSINESS COLLEGE

WASHINGTON, D. C,

Offers superior advantages for a thorough Business Education.

The course of instruction embraces Commission, Importing, Jobbing, Retailing, Bank and other Bookkeeping, Commercial Law, Arithmetic, Correspondence, Spencerian Penmanship and Business Practice.

PENMANSHIP is taught by Henry C. Spencer, the leading author of this system, and celebrated as the Editor of the "Spencerian Key to Practical Penmanship," adopted by nearly all first class Colleges as the standard of criticism. Unusual facilities are here presented for acquiring this valuable art.

The system of "BUSINESS PRACTICE," originated and successfully taught by the Proprietor, receives his special attention. This is the most valuable part of the course. Here the student applies his theoretical knowledge. He buys and sells representative mdse, makes out notes, drafts, invoices, &c., deposits College money in the College Bank, and checks it out as his business requires. Becoming, in turn, Retailer, Wholesale, Forwarder, Banker, he soon acquires a knowledge of business forms, learns to compose and condense the history of every transaction and thinks for himself. He is thus prepared for actual business.

Full scholarship, good for review at any time, with Life Membership in this Union of Colleges extending to the principal cities, only $45. Books and stationery extra.

For circulars giving full information, for specimens of Penmanship, of the College currency and merchandise,

The District delegation from the State is now complete, (with the exception of a vacancy in this District,) and stands as follows:

INFORMATION WANTED.—Mr. R. Rogers, of Monroe, Union County, wishes information of his son, J. A. Rogers, who was a soldier in Ripley's Brigade, on Sullivan's island. He was last heard of just prior to the battle at Averasboro', in this State, after which he was missing. Any intelligence concerning him will be gratefully received by his distressed father. Will the press please circulate this notice?

WIDOWS AND ORPHANS OF SOLDIERS.—The citizens of Fayetteville are to invite Mr. Leo. Wheat to give a series of his brilliant concerts in that town, for the benefit of widows and orphans of Confederate soldiers. The Presbyterian says of Mr. Wheat:

"We remember him when scarcely large enough to reach the keys of the Piano, and even then he displayed an intense enthusiasm for music which, joined to great facility of execution, seems to have given him a prominence amongst professional musicians rarely attained by a man of his age, in this or any other country.

By all means, let him come to Fayetteville, and let his reception be worthy of the pious cause to which he has devoted himself. The heart of the widow and the orphan will be made glad, and the double gratification of doing a benevolent action and hearing one of the most accomplished musicians of the day, will be cheaply purchased by the price of admission to his Concerts."

HOMICIDE.—We learn from the Newbern Times that a Mr. Hill, who resides about seven miles from Kinston, caught a negro stealing his corn, and shot him dead upon the spot, night before last.

A CORRESPONDENT of the Petersburg Express, writing from this city, says, among other things:

"By the bye, this letter, as you will perceive, is dated at the "Exchange Hotel," and it may not be uninteresting to your readers to know that it has just been re-opened under the auspices of Mr. Blair, late of Asheville, who "has kept hotel before," and is one of the best and most pleasant hotels in the South. Situated on one of the most pleasant streets of the city, a short distance from the capitol square, with rooms large and fitted up in the neatest and cleanest style, it is certainly an honor to the city, and will prove a very acceptable convenience to those who who may have occasion to sojourn here for any length of time.

In addition to the refitting and refurnishing of the Exchange, there are several other important improvements going on in the city. The Messrs. Tuckers have commenced the erection of a large store on Fayetteville street, the upper story to be fitted up as a hall for exhibitions, concerts, &c., a thing very much needed here, and the entire square near the market, on which the buildings were destroyed by fire last winter, is covered with brick for the erection of five or six large edifices, mostly for business houses. Other improvements in the way of buildings and repairs are going on in various parts of the city; all getting ready for the good time coming, which we hope may soon come."

WHOLESALE POISONING.—The Wilmington Journal has received information of a melancholy event in Sampson, brought about by a murderous and fiendish design. It says:

"The facts of the case, as communicated by our informant, are to the effect that quite a number of persons were in attendance at the marriage of Dr. Marable in Sampson county, during the week past, and that on the day following the majority of those present were taken sick, all alike, and that several have since died.

The conclusion which has since been arrived at, is that these results were produced by poison.

The number of persons present at the marriage, (including the blacks of the household) is estimated at forty-seven—forty-three of this number were affected similarly."

Jefferson Davis is said to be gradually going down to the grave in a deep decline. A writer in a Memphis journal observes: Mark my prediction! The only trial that Mr. Davis will ever have will be at the bar of Eternal Justice.

NEWS BY THE MAILS.

Revolutionary Character of the New Orleans Convention—Expected Statement from General Sheridan—Qualification of Philadelphia Delegates, &c.

[Correspondence of the Baltimore Sun.]

WASHINGTON, August 7.—A prominent Radical member of the Louisiana Convention of 1864 has been here, who states that he declined to attend the recently-called Convention on account of its revolutionary character and purposes. Full investigation will show that the true Union men of Louisiana discountenanced and resisted the plot for subjecting the State to Radical rule.

A full statement of the causes of the New Orleans riot is expected to be received by the President from General Sheridan to-day.

The Radicals have a plan on foot for creating a negro riot in Macon, Georgia. The Radical organs allege that it willbe commenced by rebel assaults on the negroes. Probably, therefore, it is intended to incite the negroes to attack the whites.

The speech of Senator Doolittle upon the question of qualifications of delegates to the Philadelphia Convention probably settles that matter. Any one may be received who concurs in the principles of the call for the Convention, But no Radical would subscribe to the several declarations of that call. Mr. Vallandigham would not hesitate to subscribe to it; and, therefore, it may be presumed that he will be admitted. Mr. Vallandigham's recent letter proposes to throw the mantle of oblivion upon past differences. After the country is saved, then, he says, parties may strive for the mastery.

The Radicals are ashamed of the venality and cupidity exhibited by their representatives in Congress. The salary grab they consider a blunder, in a political point of view. It will cost the party thousands of votes. The Congress leaders are trying to shuffle out of the matter, the Senate throwing it on the House, and the House on the Senate. The fact is, that the bounty bill and the salary bill were fixed up by the conference committee, under the special agency of members who wanted some pretext for being forced to take the spoils.

(From the National Intelligencer.)

What is Intended.

The country is evidently entering upon a new and more dangerous phase of the political agitation with which this land has been convulsed for the last ten years and more. For a considerable time the object to be attained by political agitation was the restriction of slavery within its then existing limits. When the war broke out the country slid gradually into emancipation as a military measure. Then the point to be attained on the slavery question was emancipation, with equality of civil rights for the emancipated. President Lincoln, than whom there was no better exponent in the country of the sentiment of the great party which he represented, by his despatch to ex-Governor Hahn, of Louisiana, suggesting, in the gentlest manner imaginable, tor his private consideration, the expediency of admitting the freedmen to a limited suffrage, opens to our view the ideas of the dominant party at that time.

We have now passed all that by. The Radicals do not propose equality of suffrage, limited without regard to color. They have advanced beyond that. Now they demand universal negro suffrage. What they are aiming at is not merely universal negro suffrage, but, superadded to this, exclusion from suffrage of all who were compromised in the rebellion. The direct practical purpose in view is to put the white race South under the negro. The negro element is to be taken as loyal and put in power. The first step in the programme is to do what the Radical leaders have done in New Orleans—get up an agitation in the name of negro equality. If the whites yield to this, which agitation is made as dangerous as possible by inflaming and arming the negroes, then by a series of revolutionary juntas, called conventions, the entire structure of society at the South is to be reversed, and the negro put at the top. If the whites make a struggle, then a chance incident or two, thrown like sparks into a magazine, produce an explosion, and the country is convulsed with horror at the barbarities inflicted on the poor negror.

This is a conception worthy of Machiavelli or his Satanic Majesty himself. If the revolutionists, in the efforts to overthrow a State government, are let alone, by a little political legerdemain the existing State institutions and authorities will be subverted, and the revolutionists in possession of the political power. And they are sure of their prompt recognition by the dominant party in Congress.

Suppose, on the other hand, this revolutionary violence produces collision, and blood flows: so much the better. It shows the animus of the South; the North must rally to the rescue, or the country is ruined.

The Radicals, therefore, are playing a game which they think is sure to win.

If they can overthrow the existing State governments South, and put power nominally in the hands of the negroes, the gain is all to them, for the negroes and the handful of white revolutionists directing the negroes will only be puppets in their hands.

If the effort to overcome the State governments produces violent collisions betweeen the two races, then they think they have a winning card in the next elections.

It is with these political advantages in view that a new agitation is being inaugrated South. It will manifest itself, sooner or later, in some shape or other in all the Southern cities. The place to try the next experiment of this kind is Charleston, South Carolina. So we may expect something from Charleston. A riot there, in which fifty or one hundred negroes were killed, and some outrage committed on the United States flag, would pay admirably.

THE DISMAL SWAMP CANAL.—We regret to learn that this great work is in a very unsatisfactory condition, and there seems to be no move towards its improvement. In a few months there will be a large crop of wheat and corn ready to come through to Norfolk, but from present appearances there seems to be but little prospect of its transportation through the canal. A few years ago it was regarded as only second to the best canal in the United States. Fifty years ago, when the country through which it leads was a comparative wilderness, the enterprise was deemed of sufficient importance to be commenced—and now, when the amount of produce has been so largely increased, it seems amazing that immediate steps are not taken to place the work in proper condition, and afford all the required facilities to the country people in North Carolina, which they need to get their produce to market. Recently, a law was passed by Congress to dispose of the stock held by the Government, so that the work might be under the sole control and management of private enterprise.

The people of North Carolina, who are so much interested in this work, are looking with anxiety to its immediate improvement, and we trust those under whose control it now is, will, if possible, inaugurate proper measures to render its use available by them. It is their main dependence to reach this market with fall crops.—Norfolk Day Book.

Our Thursday Morning Despatches.

Arrival from Europe.

NEW YORK, Aug. 8, P. M.

The Steamship Java, from Liverpool, with dates to the 29th, has arrived.

There has been no further disturbance of the peace in London. The Reform League had called a meeting at Hyde Park on the 30th, with the alleged consent of the government. The minister declared that no such consent was given, and warned the League against holding the meeting. They admitted a misunderstanding and resolved to abandon the meeting and hold it, instead, at Agricultural Hall, Islington. The government gives its assent to the meetings at Primrose, or other appropriate places, but will not allow the Royal parks to be used until the question of right has been determined.

The truce expired on the 27th, and was prolonged to Aug. 2nd, and a four weeks' armistice, commencing from that date, was concluded. It is also asserted that preliminaries had been signed and had reached Vienna for ratification by the Emperor of Austria.

The union of the German States was not included in the armistice, and hostilities between them and Prussia continue.

The suspension of hostilities between Austria and Italy commenced on the 25th.

Rumors are current that if Frankfort does not pay the forced contribution, the town will be closed and no one allowed to enter or depart.

The Italian government has determined upon full enquiry into the causes of the late naval defeat.

They have curious names for things now-a-days. Falstaff said it was "instinct" that moved him when he ran away at Gadshill.—Grinnell, in a late letter to his constituents, says it was "forecast" that kept him quiet under Rousseau's treatment. He thought the chances were that the vast herds of sheep which he grazes on the prairies, would lose a master, or at least have him badly hurt, if he did not let Rousseau have his way without obstruction. Indeed his "forecast" went to the extent of pronouncing the transaction "all right," an admirable thing in its way.—Richmond Enquirer.

SOMETHING NEW

UNDER THE SUN.

A New Era In Medicine!

☞ Let the Suffering and Diseased read the following.

☞ Let all who have been given up by Doctors, and spoken of as incurable, read the following.

☞ Let all who can believe facts and can have faith in evidence, read the following:

Know all men by these presents, That on this, the Twentieth day of June, in the year of our Lord, One Thousand Eight Hundred and Sixty-Six, personally came Joseph Haydock to me, known as such, and being duly sworn, deposed as follows: That he is the sole general agent for the United States, and dependencies thereof, for preparations or medicines known as MAGGIEL'S PILLS and SALVE, and that the following certificates are verbatim copies to the best of his knowledge and belief.

JAMES SMEITER,
L. S. Notary Public,
Wall Street, New York.

June 1, 1866.

DR. MAGGIEL:—I take my pen to write you of my great relief and that the awful pain in my side has left me at last—thanks to your medicine. Oh, doctor, how thankful I am that I can get some sleep. I can never write it enough. I thank you again and again, and am sure that you are really the friend of all sufferers. I could not help writing to you, and hope you will not take it amiss.

JAMES MYERS,
116 Avenue D.

This is to certify that I was discharged from the army with Chronic Diarrhœa, and have been cured by Dr. Maggiel's Pills.

WILSON HARVEY,
New York, April 7, 1865. 27 Pitt Street.

The following is an interesting case of a man employed in an Iron Foundry, who, in pouring melted iron into a flask that was damp and wet, caused an explosion. The melted iron was thrown around and on him in a perfect shower, and he was burnt dreadfully. The following certificate was given to me by him about eight weeks after the accident.

New York, Jan. 11, 1866.

My name is Jacob Hardy; I am an Iron Founder; I was badly burnt by hot iron in November last; my burns healed, but I had a running sore on my leg that would not heal; I tried Maggiel's Salve, and it cured me in a few weeks. This is all true, and any body can now see me at Jackson's Iron Works, 2nd Avenue.

J. HARDY,
119 Gecrick Street.

Extract from Various Letters:

HILLSBOROUGH MILITARY ACADEMY.

The exercises of this well known institution, founded by the late Col. C. C. Tew, will be resumed on the 1st. day of October next, under the direction of Gen. R. E. COLSTON, a graduate, and for fifteen years, (up to the commencement of the war) a Professor of the Va. Military Institute.

The course of instruction will be such as to make the Academy a great a school of theoretical and applied science—in which languages and literature will also receive a full share of attention. The discipline and instruction will be upon a complete military basis.

Gen'l. Colston's long experience and extensive acquaintance enable him to assure the public, that he will secure the services of Professors of distinguished ability as the wants of the school require them, and he confidently relies upon the liberal patronage of his old friends and companions in arms, throughout N. C. and the whole South.

Applications for admission must be made as early as practicable, to the Superintendent, and accompanied by testimonials of good moral character. Circulars containing full information will be issued in a few days. For these, and all further particulars, apply to GEN R. E. COLSTON,

MAGGIEL'S FEVER AND AGUE

PILLS!!

THESE famous remedies, known throughout the great West of the United States for their extraordinary cures of

CHILLS, FEVER AND AGUE

are now thoroughly introduced in the State of North Carolina, and can be obtained of all enterprising, first class druggists.

They act as a tonic to all debilitated systems, taken in doses of before meals, and should be found in every family residing in miasmatic districts.

To any skeptic or one who does not believe in these marvellous preparations,

A Box Will be sent Free

If he is not cured with one and not more than two boxes, no charge will be made. The price of the Pills is high—say but as they are a perfect cure without trouble or inconvenience, the charge is reasonable enough.

Address J. MAGGIEL, M. D., 43 Fulton St.
New York.

CAUTION.

Watch narrowly and guard yourselves vigilantly against counterfeits. I have just suppressed a notorious counterfeit in Wisconsin, after much trouble and expense. Purchase of only first class druggists and never of peddlers or traveling dealers.

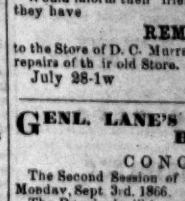
AYER'S AGUE CURE,

FOR THE SPEEDY CURE OF



Intermittent Fever, or Fever and Ague, Remittent Fever, Chill Fever, Dumb Ague, Periodical Headache or Bilious Headache, and Bilious Fevers, indeed for the whole class of diseases originating in biliary derangement, caused by the malaria of miasmatic countries.

FEVER and Ague is not the only consequence of the miasmatic poison. A great variety of disorders arise from its irritation, in malarious districts, among which are Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Gout, Headache, Blindness, Toothache, Earache, Catarrh, Asthma, Palpitation, Painful Affection of the Spleen, Hysterics, Pain in the Bowels, Colic, Paralysis, and Derangement of the Stomach, all of which, when originating in this cause put on the intermittent type, or become periodical. This "CURE" expels the poison from the blood, and thus cures them all alike. It is not only the most effectual remedy ever discovered for this class of complaints, but it is the cheapest and moreover is perfectly safe. No harm can arise from its use, and the patient when cured is left as healthy as if he had never had the disease. Can this be said of any other cure for Chills and Fever? It is true of this, and its importance to those afflicted with the complaint cannot be over estimated. So sure is it to cure the Fever and Ague, that it may be truthfully said to be a certain remedy. One Dealer complains that it is not a good medicine to sell, because one bottle cures a whole neighborhood.

Prepared by J. C. AYER & Co., Lowell, Mass., and sold by Williams & Haywood, P. F. Pescud, Raleigh, N. C., and Dealers generally.
